Dear Parents and Carers,

I am writing to share some heartfelt news with you. After many wonderful years of dedication and service, our much-loved teaching assistant, Mrs Sharp will be retiring on Friday 28th November.

Mrs Sharp has been an integral part of our school community for a number of years, supporting countless children and families along the way. Her kindness, patience, and unwavering commitment have touched the lives of everyone who has had the pleasure of working or learning alongside her.

Throughout her time here, Mrs Sharp has provided not only academic support but also an incredible amount of love and care to our pupils. She has always gone above and beyond—offering encouragement, comfort, and laughter in equal measure. Her nurturing presence has made our classrooms brighter and our school a warmer, more welcoming place.

We know that both staff and children will miss her greatly. However, we are also excited for Mrs Sharp as she begins this new chapter of her life, filled with well-deserved rest, new adventures, and time with her family and friends.

On behalf of everyone at St Marys, I want to thank Mrs Sharp for her incredible years of service and for the lasting impact she has made on our school community. She will always be part of the St Marys family.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs D Douglas
Headteacher
